

IN REPLY REFER TO FILE NO.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

BUREAU OF NAVIGATION

WASHINGTON

April 30, 1924.

Supervisors of Radio and All Others Concerned:

During the daylight-saving period, or from May 1 to October 1, 1924, all general, restricted, and special amateur transmitting stations are required to observe a silent period from 7.00 P. M. to 10.30 P. M., local standard time, or from 8.00 P. M. to 11.30 P. M., daylight saving time, and on Sundays during church services.

D. E. CARSON,
Commissioner.

Approved:

S. B. DAVIS,

Acting Secretary of Commerce.

To owner of amateur station, Call letters

9 E H M

This letter must be attached to your radio-station license and is made a part thereof as amending the hours of operation from May 1, 1924, to October 1, 1924 only.

W. Beamer
Supervisor of Radio.